

20 to 24 months

Your toddler is learning to play like a big kid.

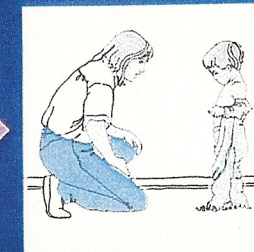

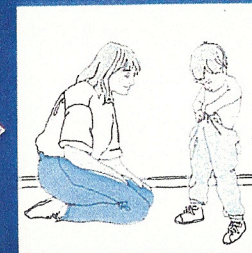

1. They like to run and kick and throw.

2. They never seem to get tired.

3. They are trying new, fun things.

4. They love to show new games to you.

Your toddler wants to help you whenever they can. But it isn't always easy for them to do new things. It may take them a long time. But they try very hard to please you.

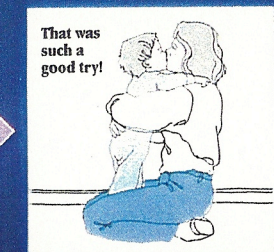

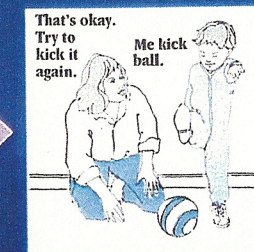

1. Let them put on their own clothes.

2. Let them try to do it by themselves.

3. Help them if they need it.

4. Give them a hug to show how proud you are.

Your toddler likes to play more difficult games with you. They like to follow your directions and talk and run.

1. Ask them to kick a ball to you.

2. Encourage them to try on their own.

3. Let them try again when they miss.

4. Give them a kiss when they're done.
